

GATHER TO GO :: GOSPEL-DRIVEN LIFE

Acts 15

THE POINT

We are saved by grace through faith in the person and work of Jesus.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 01 The question “What must I do to be saved?” has been asked for thousands of years. Before you knew Jesus, what did you think you had to do to be right with God?
- 02 The Judaizers taught “Jesus + circumcision/law-keeping” for salvation. What subtle “Jesus + ____” additions (church attendance, morality, productivity) are you tempted to lean on for your standing with God?
- 03 Peter said God “made no distinction” and cleansed hearts “by faith,” not outward rule-keeping. Why is it easier to focus on behavior than let God deal with our hearts? Where do you need Him to work on your heart, not just your habits?
- 04 From Abraham to Acts 15, faith has always been God’s people’s response — not perfect performance. What does it look like to “believe and trust” Jesus this week rather than trying to earn His favor?
- 05 Salvation is a gift of grace, not wages we’ve earned. Is there an area where you’re relating to God more like an employee earning a paycheck than a child receiving a gift? What would change if you rested in grace there?
- 06 Paul Tripp says legalism “plays to our pride” and the belief our performance can achieve acceptance with God. Where do you see that pull toward self-righteousness in your own heart?
- 07 James told new Gentile believers to flee idolatry and immorality, and to love their Jewish brothers and sisters well across real differences. Where is grace calling you to both turn from something and extend patience to someone different from you?
- 08 “I was saved, I am being saved, and I will finally be saved” — salvation is a process, not just a past decision. When life gets hard, are you more tempted to revert to “try harder” than to rest in grace?
- 09 Romans 5:2 says we’ve “obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand.” What’s one everyday circumstance this week where you need to remember you’re standing in grace, not your own performance?
- 10 What was your biggest takeaway, and what is one concrete step you sense God inviting you to take this week? Who can you ask to check in with you on it?
